Zeke & Zebedee

for narrator with instrumentalist words & music by Neal Corwell

EXCERPT: The ending

My message is simple,
but one we must remember:
of the family of man,
we are all a member.

No matter how different
we may act or appear,
we should treat all with kindness,
not hate or fear.

SO...
(switch to lighter tone of voice for following verse)

Whether black or white, red or yellow, built like a beanpole, or shaped like a cello, we are all quite different, that's very true, but yet we're the same, both me and you.
